WHY ORTEGA FISH SHACK?

Article abridged from 'The legend of Ortega' by H.Avers PhD (Hist), University of Caracas.

Babieca Ortega (1857 – 1936) was a prodigious fisherman and fabulous chef who lived on a remote island.

His father, Alfonso Babieca Marques de los Ortega, was a wealthy Spanish grandee renowned for his epicurean taste and philandering. After losing his fortune gambling at Perudo and being accused of seducing a member of the Spanish Royal family, Alfonso, in desperation, fled Spain in 1856. He worked his passage on a small trading vessel jumping ship on Isla de Pez, an insignificant remote island off the coast of Venezuela in the Southern/Caribbean.

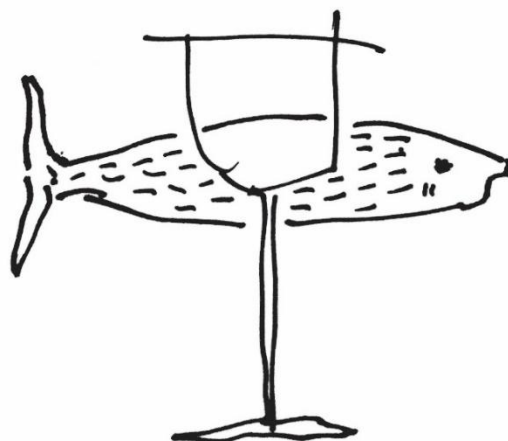

Ortega's mother was the daughter of a native fisherman who capitulated readily to the experienced charm of Alfonso, who shortly after, continued his wanderings and disappeared into the vastness of South America.

The story then told is that the day that Ortega was born; his mother was out fishing by herself in a small boat. She had just hooked a large fish when she went into labour but not being one to give up on a good catch she carried on playing the fish which landed in the bilge at the same time as Ortega.

Whatever the truth this story sets the leitmotif for Ortega's life. He became a consummate fisherman, the South American Davy Crockett, reputed to have caught a giant fish of the species Ursula Pisces when he was only 10 years old.

From his father Ortega inherited a love of good food and he became an expert at cooking the fish, he caught and concocting recipes using wild herbs and fruit. Despite its remoteness, or perhaps because of it and romantic traveller's tales, food lovers from far away began to visit the island to sample Ortega's cooking. In 1887, when he was 30 years old, he opened a restaurant in an abandoned fishing shack. Some of its interior features were built from salvage taken from ships that were wrecked on the island's notorious reef, including the ceiling constructed from curved ships-timbers a zinc fronted bar and coloured glass windows.

He took an intense interest in natural history and his tropical seashell collection was admired by conchologists.

The fame of the Ortega Fish Shack spread and regardless of the difficulty of getting their epicureans from around the world made the effort. Recent research has confirmed that some of the more famous visitors include -

1891 - Paul Gauguin visited on his way to Tahiti. His painting Cabine de Peche Isla de Pez is one of the only known images of the Ortega Fish Shack

1888 - Robert Louis Stevenson in the yacht Casco on his way to Samoa. He wrote of his experience "I never thought to eat such wondrous fare and brooded many hours as to whether I should ever leave Ortega's magic isle."

1895 - Joshua Slocum on his solo voyage round the world on his yacht Spray.

1898 - Theodore (Teddy) Roosevelt (then a colonel in the Rough riders) who was sailing the Caribbean while recovering from the battle of San Juan Hill in Cuba.

1928 - Zane Grey on a fishing trip from Florida.

1934 - Ernest Hemingway in his yacht Pilar. He was inspired by Ortega to write one of his most famous books, The old man and the sea.

In 1936, Hermann Goring travelled secretly to Isla de Pez on a chartered Deutsche Lufthansa sea plane. Goring, a well-known gourmet, was on a mission to persuade Ortega to organize the cuisine at his newly acquired luxury mansion near Brandenburg. However, Ortega, who was of mixed blood (and who had some Jewish ancestry) flatly refused to have anything to do with him.

The week after Goring's departure the fish shack was burned down under suspicious circumstances while Ortega was on a solo fishing trip from which he never returned.

Nothing remains of his Fish Shack or his boat, nor is there any written record of his life other than those quoted above but Mark, Helen, Davey & Anna's new Ortega Fish Shack seeks to continue his tradition of excellent food.

A LITTLE SOMETHING TO BEGIN WITH

LUSTAU SHERRY

Founded in 1896 & exporting their own sherry since 1950, the Solera Familiar range originates from the old soleras founded by Emilio Lustau early in his career as an almacenista.

Manzanilla Papirusa - From the town of Sanlúcar de Barrameda; full, with a gorgeous mix of salted nuts, beeswax, & bruised apples with a hint of hot driftwood. Simply perfect with a few olives or on its own.

Glass 15.5 (75ml) Bottle 73 (375ml)

Puerto Fino - From the town of Puerto de Santa María, soft, slightly creamy & very smooth with attractive baked orchard & citrus fruits with a toasty yeasty character. An excellent match with oysters.

Glass 15.5 (75ml) Bottle 73 (375ml)

Glass 15.5 (75ml) Bottle 73 (375ml)

Dry Oloroso Don Nuño - Rich & very full in the mouth with bolder notes of coffee, figs & chocolate covered chestnuts, yet still with a clean & dry lemon finish. Fantastic with rich white fish dishes.

Glass 18.5 (75ml) Bottle 86 (375ml)

Oloroso Pata de Gallina - Wow! Unblended from a tiny single solera system by our friend Juan Garcia Jarana who specialises in Motorcycles & Sherry. This Oloroso has delicate coffee & cocoa characters, with freshly roasting pecans & a long snappy citrusy finish with lingering baked spicy orange peel. Great to accompany dishes with fuller aromatics & spice.

Glass 24 (75ml) Bottle 130 (500ml)

Jura! A wine like no other. Made from a blend of Chardonnay & Savagnin grapes, left to do its thing where it's aged in barrel under a thin layer of yeast known as the veil. Where it becomes super sherry like, where it's crazy oxidative, funky & rich, yet super dry & long. All smoky, salty, nutty, floral & citrusy with a glorious mineral texture.

SKINNY 'n' ORANGEY WINES

GLASS BOTTLE

Orange or skin contact wines have had a long history in the winemaking story. Orange is a certain fashion for making a white wine, leaving the grapes on their skins for sometimes hours, days, or month a time – often left sitting on their lees or ageing in oak barriques for months. This produces a deep amber colour in these once white wines, usually with a fuller grippy structure & a touch of funky character.

168. Château Gruaud Larose Saint-Julien '90 - Bordeaux, France 635
A classic mix of Bordeaux grapes, Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Cabernet Franc & Petit Verdot, coming to life with a swirl of air, giving out loads of meatiness with cinnamon, rosemary & flirting with the funky side of the fence. Cherries, peppery plums & herby goodness. Sigh!
169. Château Malescot Saint-Exupéry Margaux '15 - Bordeaux, France 375
Rockstar Margaux from a château steeped in history. An elegant yet supple blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot & Cabernet Franc. Firm crème de cassis, plum, and forest floor give way to floral aromatics & hints of charcoal, with enough restraint to allow for a gentle, long finish.

Glorious & bold, all that Bordeaux does so well! This blend from Pessac-Léognan is made up of Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Petit Verdot & Cabernet Franc. Layers of fruit, funk, spice & chocolate meet a herbaceous richness & length.

Wow wow wow – just incredible! Made using an ancient style of making wine to preserve to age & stand the distance of time – Vin de Paille, meaning straw wine. For this, firstly they have selected the best Pinot Gris parcels & left them to hang out to become Late Harvest. Then they have hung and dried the grapes in the hay loft of the barn for over a month to create further concentrated lushness in the wine. All honeyed apples, pears with spice, glorious length, structure & texture. Only made in very, very small amounts, what a special dessert wine to come out of NZ.
212. Alpha Domus 'Noble Selection' Semillon 375ml '18 - Hawke's Bay, New Zealand 84
