WHY ORTEGA FISH SHACK?

Article abridged from 'The legend of Ortega' by H.Avers PhD (Hist), University of Caracas.

Babieca Ortega (1857 – 1936) was a prodigious fisherman and fabulous chef who lived on a remote island.

His father, Alfonso Babieca Marques de los Ortega, was a wealthy Spanish grandee renowned for his epicurean taste and philandering. After losing his fortune gambling at Perudo and being accused of seducing a member of the Spanish Royal family, Alfonso, in desperation, fled Spain in 1856. He worked his passage on a small trading vessel jumping ship on Isla de Pez, an insignificant remote island off the coast of Venezuela in the Southern/Caribbean.

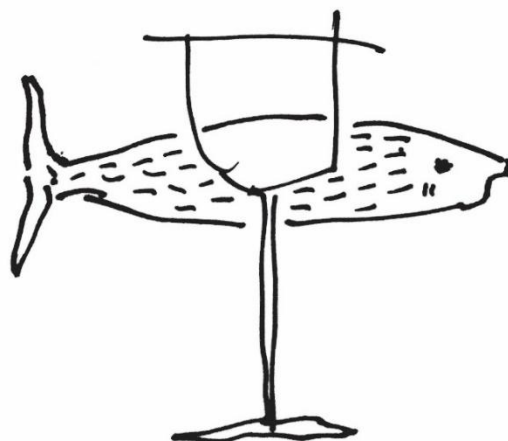

Ortega's mother was the daughter of a native fisherman who capitulated readily to the experienced charm of Alfonso, who shortly after, continued his wanderings and disappeared into the vastness of South America.

The story then told is that the day that Ortega was born; his mother was out fishing by herself in a small boat. She had just hooked a large fish when she went into labour but not being one to give up on a good catch she carried on playing the fish which landed in the bilge at the same time as Ortega.

Whatever the truth this story sets the leitmotif for Ortega's life. He became a consummate fisherman, the South American Davy Crockett, reputed to have caught a giant fish of the species Ursula Pisces when he was only 10 years old.

From his father Ortega inherited a love of good food and he became an expert at cooking the fish, he caught and concocting recipes using wild herbs and fruit. Despite its remoteness, or perhaps because of it and romantic traveller's tales, food lovers from far away began to visit the island to sample Ortega's cooking. In 1887, when he was 30 years old, he opened a restaurant in an abandoned fishing shack. Some of its interior features were built from salvage taken from ships that were wrecked on the island's notorious reef, including the ceiling constructed from curved ships-timbers a zinc fronted bar and coloured glass windows.

He took an intense interest in natural history and his tropical seashell collection was admired by conchologists.

The fame of the Ortega Fish Shack spread and regardless of the difficulty of getting their epicureans from around the world made the effort. Recent research has confirmed that some of the more famous visitors include -

1891 - Paul Gauguin visited on his way to Tahiti. His painting Cabine de Peche Isla de Pez is one of the only known images of the Ortega Fish Shack

1888 - Robert Louis Stevenson in the yacht Casco on his way to Samoa. He wrote of his experience "I never thought to eat such wondrous fare and brooded many hours as to whether I should ever leave Ortega's magic isle."

1895 - Joshua Slocum on his solo voyage round the world on his yacht Spray.

1898 - Theodore (Teddy) Roosevelt (then a colonel in the Rough riders) who was sailing the Caribbean while recovering from the battle of San Juan Hill in Cuba.

1928 - Zane Grey on a fishing trip from Florida.

1934 - Ernest Hemingway in his yacht Pilar. He was inspired by Ortega to write one of his most famous books, The old man and the sea.

In 1936, Hermann Göring travelled secretly to Isla de Pez on a chartered Deutsche Lufthansa sea plane. Göring, a well-known gourmet, was on a mission to persuade Ortega to organize the cuisine at his newly acquired luxury mansion near Brandenburg. However, Ortega, who was of mixed blood (and who had some Jewish ancestry) flatly refused to have anything to do with him.

The week after Göring's departure the fish shack was burned down under suspicious circumstances while Ortega was on a solo fishing trip from which he never returned.

Nothing remains of his Fish Shack or his boat, nor is there any written record of his life other than those quoted above but Mark, Helen, Davey & Anna's new Ortega Fish Shack seeks to continue his tradition of excellent food.

A LITTLE SOMETHING TO BEGIN WITH

LUSTAU SHERRY

Founded in 1896 & exporting their own sherry since 1950, the Solera Familiar range originates from the old soleras founded by Emilio Lustau early in his career as an almacenista.

Manzanilla Papirusa - From the town of Sanlúcar de Barrameda; full, with a gorgeous mix of salted nuts, beeswax, & bruised apples with a hint of hot driftwood. Simply perfect with a few olives or on its own.

Glass 15.5 (75ml)    Bottle 73 (375ml)

Puerto Fino - From the town of Puerto de Santa María, soft, slightly creamy & very smooth with attractive baked orchard & citrus fruits with a toasty yeasty character. An excellent match with oysters.

Glass 15.5 (75ml)    Bottle 73 (375ml)

Dry Amontillado Los Arcos - An oxidised version of Puerto Fino giving it a fuller & much more viscous texture with golden colour, bolder citrusy fruits, walnuts & hints of raisins yet so dry. A beautiful sherry that dishes out a little kick of spice.

Glass 15.5 (75ml)    Bottle 73 (375ml)

Dry Oloroso Don Nuño - Rich & very full in the mouth with bolder notes of coffee, figs & chocolate covered chestnuts, yet still with a clean & dry lemon finish. Fantastic with rich white fish dishes.

Glass 18.5 (75ml)    Bottle 86 (375ml)

Oloroso Pata de Gallina - Wow! Unblended from a tiny single solera system by our friend Juan Garcia Jarana who specialises in Motorcycles & Sherry. This Oloroso has delicate coffee & cocoa characters, with roasting pecans & a long, snappy citrus finish of lingering spicy orange peel. Great to accompany dishes with fuller aromatics & spice.

Glass 24 (75ml)    Bottle 130 (500ml)

Palo Cortado de Jerez - Only 22 casks make up this solera by Cayetano del Pino, a velvety Expression of Palo Cortado, the 'Hermaphrodite' of sherries. Aged first under the veil, then oxidatively for rich almond, dark fruit and dried apricot on a bed of leather and toffee.

Glass 24 (75ml)    Bottle 130 (500ml)

LUSTAU VERMUT

Vermouth from Jerez, based on a blend of sherries individually aged for ten years and then used to singularly macerate each of the ten added botanicals before being expertly married.

Glass 13.5 (75ml)

78. Bilancia 'Uvaggio' Field Blend '20 - Hawke's Bay, New Zealand Wow! From the famous steep sloped La Collina vineyard in our very own Hawke's Bay. Uvaggio, which roughly translates to field blend in Italian, is actually paying homage to the Rhône Valley in France, where these varietals of Viognier, Marsanne &amp; Roussanne are blended to produce spectacularly scrumptious whites &amp; this is no exception. Made in tiny quantities, they have really excelled. Like liquid orchards, florals &amp; citrus.		155
79. Julien Pilon Condrieu 'Lône' '20 - Rhône, France Richly generous Viognier from its spiritual homeland. Ripe peach, floral nectar &amp; honey exude from this perfumed elixir, complemented by warming notes of anise &amp; nutmeg with a subtle almond &amp; orange essence spice.		175

84. Neudorf Rosie's Block Moutere Chardonnay '17 - Nelson, New Zealand With age, the true layers of this wine's complexity are beginning to unravel. Nougat, creamy biscuits &amp; toasted almond join a baked stone fruit bouquet with saline subtlety.		188
85. Colere 'Holon' Chardonnay '20 - Marlborough, New Zealand Very refined new wave Chardonnay from the Ashmore Vineyard. Broad, just-ripe Meyer lemon with a distinct umami presence of shoyu broth &amp; white mushroom owing to skin maceration. Apricot core phenolics, well resolved, provide a scaffolding for this refrained fruit to express itself, giving structure &amp; length.		94

SKINNY 'n' ORANGEY WINES

GLASS BOTTLE

Orange or skin contact wines have had a long history in the winemaking story. Orange is a certain fashion for making a white wine, leaving the grapes on their skins for sometimes hours, days, or month a time – often left sitting on their lees or ageing in oak barriques for months. This produces a deep amber colour in these once white wines, usually with a fuller grippy structure & a touch of funky character.

105. A Thousand Gods 'Blanc' 24' - Marlborough, New Zealand 19.5 92
Welcome; this is the gateway of skin contact white & man it's just done so brilliantly. Sauvignon Blanc from Marlborough, but reinvented with a proportion of skin maturation & a good helping of creamy lees. Green walnut, verbena & salvia mint introduce a finely salted, super fresh palate of lemon balm & grapefruit.
106. Amoise Amber Albariño '24' - Hawke's Bay, New Zealand 17.5 83
Albariño from the Bay, few weeks on the skins, with a portion taken for a spin in Spanish 'tinaja' amphoras & the rest in old barriques. Super aromatic, delicate & saline, with spice & texture. Gorgeously dry & inviting with fleshy ginger, white smoke & passionfruit hull.
107. Valli 'The Real McCoy' Pinot Gris Orange '21' - Central Otago, New Zealand 98

108. Paolo Bea 'Arboreus' Umbria Bianco '11' - Umbria, Italy 225
Italy has been at the forefront of reigniting orange wine's flame & producing some stunning examples. True to the style, this balanced drop is made from 100% Trebbiano Spoletino, an ancient variety of tree vine.
109. Castell d'Encus 'Taleia' Brisat '17' - Costers del Segre, Spain 28 127
A project by architect Raül Bobet, Castell d'Encus is pioneering the voice of viticulture in the Pyrenees, capturing the essence of their place through a stalwart strive toward terroir & soil expression. Sauvignon Blanc & Semillon mature on their skins in barrel to give us golden straw, sultana skin, dried yellow apple & wheat. A rich almond oil texture & savoury blonde miso character with dried pine sap make for a vibrant, lengthy finish.
